GARDEN ACCENTS DEFINE STYLE

Inspired by the Oklahoma Horticultural Society's Garden Tour for Connoisseurs, we are featuring interesting pieces to add, well, interest to your garden. While poking around someone else's garden, it is fascinating to find plants that are unfamiliar or not in your garden, and discover unique, personal choices of garden accents.

Faux bois (the appearance of a tree trunk or limb) is very popular for garden accents such as benches, tables, and planters. These tree trunk planters are cast by Campania from real trees and feature a two tone finish. Great as garden benches and an alternative to boulders, they look perfect in a shade garden bed planted with ferns; the knothole can be planted or serve as an ideal spot for whimsical surprises.

Miniatures have been garden favorites for decades. Today's miniatures are designed with finer details from panes in the windows, wooden doors and working wishing wells, to cakes with frosting and tiny glittering candles. Just looking at them sparks the imagination of young and young at heart.

Garden statuary and accessories help tell a story and create magic in the garden. Magic can be achieved by placing pieces where they can be discovered by visitors (and yourself). You often have this realistic piece near a water feature.

No matter your story or your style, the accents you choose will make your garden your own.

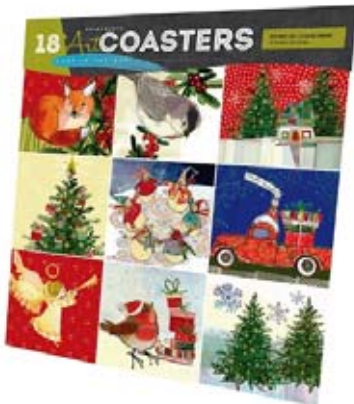

FOR YOU, FOR NOW, FOR THE HOLIDAYS!

Autumn is in the air with our botanical “comfort” candles in the scents of Pumpkin Farmhouse (pumpkin, nutmeg, cocoa, caramelized sugar), Spicy Apple (apple pie), Anjou Pear, Honey Tobacco (leather club chair, almond, crushed tobacco), and our new favorite, Forest (crisp clary sage, scotch pine, citron). Candle sizes are from 3.5” in recycled glass to 6” wide botanicals, each capable of providing weeks of delicious natural fragrances.

Every image on these coasters is cuter than the one before. Each set of 18 images is designed by a nationally known artist. Made with heavy duty, water-resistant paper, they are reusable and last for years.

Make a comfortable seat on a bench with pillows and accents where you can enjoy relaxing outdoors. Hospitality begins at the front door. Welcome Thanksgiving guests to your home with a seasonal doormat and accessories at the entry.

With their garden inspired designs, April Cornell tablecloths and napkins add a warm, tasteful touch to your Thanksgiving table. Only the best is good enough for your guests.

Holiday napkins set a lovely table and tea towels lend a holiday ambiance to the kitchen. Perennial favorites, they also make great hostess gifts that can be easily tucked into a suitcase for out of town travel.

Unique ceramic flowers are stunning in their intricacy and subtle coloring, perfect collectibles or a beautiful gift for a friend.

Art calendars are a beautiful way to keep track of the days. Linnea, Janine Moore, and Peter Rolfe are the artists with faithful fans across the nation.

LOOKING FORWARD

This is just one of many new outdoor Christmas pillows that will be available after November 1. Beautiful bunny pillows from the past several years, Peace, and Joy, will be returning because they are also fabulous. In addition to their beauty, their covers zip off for laundering and if they get wet, they dry quickly.

New rain chains will be in stock in the very near future. Double link polished solid copper which just darkens a little over time, bamboo links, fish in polished copper, flowers with watering can, and umbrellas in polished copper will be the primary pieces featured. Rain chains can replace downspouts channeling the dancing water down in a mesmerizing flow. They can also be used in a strictly ornamental application if you prefer. Either way, they are beautiful.

Wind chimes make lovely gifts that can be enjoyed year round. Made in the USA, they are hand-tuned to chime in certain melodic tones that create a harmonious garden atmosphere.
