THE GREAT FALL REFRESH

Go outdoors; you will be glad you did! There will be plenty of time to be indoors in just a few weeks when cooler temperatures arrive.

Prepare to transfer tropical plants indoors. Remove them from their pots and wash them to eliminate any insects that may have taken up residence. If tropicals have grown a bit too large for their containers, trim their roots back slightly and find a new pot that is an inch larger around the edges. For plants that will be overwintered in the garage, we love Smart Pots. Their sturdy fabric makes them easy to move and is plant friendly.

Fall container plantings are beautiful. Cold tolerant plants and perennials look great underplanted around evergreens. Accent with berries, gourds, small pumpkins, or pinecones. Tuck in some moss to give it a finished look, retain moisture, and further insulate plants from cold temps. You can also amass gourds and pumpkins in large containers instead of plants

Our cast stone and glazed terra cotta planters are weather resistant and are suitable to remain outdoors safely all winter, planted or unplanted, as long as any water inside can drain. Since our new shipments have just arrived, we have a bumper crop of classic and contemporary cast stone and glazed terra cotta planters from which to choose. If you are less than fond of your old containers, or you don't have any containers (?!), bring in a photo of your entry or patio space and let us help.

You are almost done! Change out pillows to reflect the change of seasons, just like you change your wardrobe. It gives a festive feeling! As you may know by now, the pillow covers zip off to launder and minimize storage space. (you can purchase covers separately, save money and space). Wash the summer pillow covers, and store so they will be ready to use next spring. when you are ready for color after the cold, monotone winter.

WHAT'S IN THE STORE

Campania has taken advantage of recent trade agreements with Burma (Myanmar), bringing in a small number of these fantastic water jars adapted to be containers. A premier focal point, they are hand-thrown on a pottery wheel. Because Burma is an undeveloped country, they cannot manufacture many of these pieces, limiting their availability. We are very fortunate to have an offering for our customers. A number of bowls are also available.

Back in stock just in time for the holidays, these ceramic grinders are handmade and hand painted in France. They contain French grey sea salt and peppercorns for healthier, more flavorful foods. The grinders are available in five different traditional French designs. Easily refillable, they are great gifts and add a touch of Provence to any table.

Also back in stock are the Spicy Apple botanical candles and new wax sachets. Candles are made with all natural ingredients including partial beeswax, giving them a rich feel and appearance. The large botanical candles have a 120 hour burn time; candles in glass have an 85+ hour burn time. Oval wax sachets can be displayed or used to fragrance drawers and closets. Very giftable, their pretty packaging needs no wrapping.

There is just no comparing these apples to other apples. We couldn't resist these marvelous oversized apples in durable antique terra cotta.

A great gift or beautiful as a presentation piece for cheeses, these petite melamine cheeseboards with fork and knife are very attractive and durable.

New doormats will welcome autumn guests at your entry. These are perfect for use with a storm door. Permanently dyed with a vivid color process resulting in long lasting vibrant colors, they are fade and mildew resistant, weatherproof., with a nonskid backing, and are made in the USA.

Everyone needs a calendar. Choose one with a beautiful or whimsical new painting to look forward to each month. Cute and engaging Dog Days calendars provide 12 months of pure playfulness offered in the spiral bound 5" x 7" desk size. Kate Libby, not shown, painted her dogs and family from everyday life around Maine. Linnea calendars feature cleanly executed graphics that illustrate each month. Inspired by nature, Janine Moore's Flowers calendar provides 12 months of blooms to brighten all your days.

This year consider purchasing a cover made by Campania to fit your fountain for a worry-free winter. Once the water is removed, this waterproof fabric will keep rain and snow out of the bowl. A drawstring keeps the cover from blowing off until you are ready to use it again in the spring. Large size is in stock now.
