SETTLE COMFORTABLY INTO THESE

Pillows are the epitomy of comfort. Outdoor pillows with their lovely seasonal images greet passersby and guests as they enter your home.

They add the look of comfort on a patio loveseat when viewed through a window, a lovely picture in a frame, beckoning you to rest there comfortably.

We use several pillow sources to serve a variety of tastes and budgets. One of our favorite vendors features styles that appeal to almost every audience. The owner tells us they want to have things that no one else has: cool and different designs. They watch fashion trends in the U.S. and Europe, interpreting them into their pillow concepts; their offerings always include a variety of fashion forward, nature, and contemporary images. They tell us they sell even more pillows to indoor furniture companies!

Another vendor who happens to be an english fabric designer has created high fashion pillows from Sunbrella yarns ranging from a dramatic cut velvet zebra pattern to exquisite holiday styles. They look like they belong indoors; they too are for outdoors.

Some customers like to design their pillows from our Sunbrella fabric kiosk. They use the fabrics, braid and fringes to create their own unique look.

Fluffy and comfortable, washable and weather resistant, with high design, fringe and braid, the outdoor pillows of today bely their durability. Beauty and usefulness, fashion, comfort, and value: you can ask for nothing more!

WHAT'S NEW IN THE STORE

Candles provide another layer of ambiance and coziness in the holiday home. They play an important role in holiday decorating, like a miniature crackling fireplace. The spicy apple candle's scent is reminiscent of grandmother in the kitchen baking homemade pies.

From France, the Noel Collection limited edition gift box containing two round 100g soaps beautifully embossed in a floral design. Quad milled with ultra rich skin softening shea butter, their scent is that of a pomander, clove and orange with a hint of cinnamon. Filling a powder room with their spicy seasonal fragrance, these soaps also make a wonderful gift presentation.

Well enjoyed and long lasting, these 16 oz shatterproof, dishwasher safe stemless polycarbonate wine glasses are a joy to use indoors or outside for carefree entertaining. Get some for yourself and a friend; a bundle of four makes an easy to carry hostess gift.

Matte gold metal trees encrusted with silver snowflakes form a woodland winter forest where gilded angels gather. These holiday table or buffet accents add simple elegance to any setting.

Holiday doormats will give your home a festive flair while preventing debris from tracking inside. These mats are very durable, can be laundered if necessary with jeans and towels.

Give the garden a gift! Many new statuary pieces have been created by Campania International this year and we have them in the store. From small turtles to cats and dogs or Saint Francis, Fiacre, and Mary, artists carve each piece from plaster and painstakingly over a period of weeks make a latex mold with incredible detail.

A TRIP WITH JENNY & TINA

Two very lovely and energetic British ladies, Tina Boughey and Jennifer Aston-Mills of Worcester, UK, own and operate a cooking school and touring company appropriately named "Tasting England." They have published a cookbook by the same name featuring delicious and beautiful modern English recipes; Jenny had the privilege to cook lunch for Queen Elizabeth during her Diamond Jubilee.

They recently toured the country on a promotional tour and spent time in Oklahoma City visiting a good friend, Jo Logan. They are cordially inviting you to join our small group of 10 for the experience of a lifetime! They will provide a one week personalized experience of the real England, combining their love of cooking and gardens to ensure our experience is one to treasure. Every day includes wonderful meals, some at private residences prepared by the lady and gentleman of the house. They are eager to take us for a drive through the Cotswolds to the Pudding Club, a 100 year old hotel famous for its Chocolate Indulgence luncheon. A visit to the most renowned Hidcote Garden will be included as one of the destinations. Tickets will be purchased for the Chelsea Flower Show if reservations are received in January.

One day includes a visit to Blenheim Palace, home of Sir Winston Churchill, with a custom made picnic on the grounds. Another day will feature a tour of Worcester, its lovely cathedral and Porcelain Museum where you can purchase. A dinner will be provided in a private home; drinks served by the host and hostess of the house. After a day of strolling and shopping, a formal Downton Abbey dinner experience will cap off the trip. Come by the store to pick up an informative card.

You are invited, the real England Awaits!
